

The organization of the courts.

1. Describe the organization of the courts and give a short summary of their competence : 1st instance, appeal, supreme court, etc.

Do you have specialized courts, f.i.: commerce, labour, administration, army, etc.

2. a) How are those courts composed: professional judges merchant judges, employers judges or worker judges, etc.?

b) How are the judges appointed : by the Government, by the Parliament, by election?

3. Do you have prosecution officers?
Do they belong to the judiciary?

Give a short description of the institution.

4. Are the judges appointed for life?
Can they be transferred from one jurisdiction to another, with or without their consent?

5. Do you have a Judicial Power, on the same line as the Legislative Power (Parliament) and the Executive Power (Government)?