

3rd Study Commission questionnaire – 1999 Taipei

The influence of the press and other media upon the integrity and freedom of opinion of the members of the judiciary in criminal justice matters

- a. Though the political world and the judicial hierarchy concerning the professional career and the way the judge or prosecutor assumes his/her function.
- b. Though his or her private life (friendships, finances, relations, membership of sportive, philosophical, religious, social, political associations, etc.)
- c. By means of pressures, manipulations or menaces on the members of his/her family, or of his/her intimate circle.
- d. Others.