

International Association of Judges
promoting an independent judiciary worldwide

International Association of Judges (IAJ)
Union Internationale des Magistrats
(UIM)

Judicial Officers Association of South Africa (JOASA)

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE: ITS IMPACT ON JUDICIAL ACTIVITIES

International Conference organised by the International Association of Judges (IAJ) in co-operation with the Judicial Officers Association of South Africa (JOASA)

Cape Town, Sunday 20th October, 2024

08.30 Opening of the Conference

8.30 – 08.50 Mariya Badeva (University of Cape Town - Faculty of Law)

President of the Session

With Edmund Beerwinkel (JUTA and Company legal publishers)

Introduction of the subject: Artificial Intelligence: its Impact on the Judicial Activities

08.50 – 09.10 Marilyn Huff - President of the First Study Commission of the IAJ

The Effects of Artificial Intelligence on the Judiciary as a Whole

09.10 – 09.30 Margaret McKeown - President of the Fourth Study Commission of the IAJ

Artificial Intelligence: its Impact on Social Law

09.30 – 09.50 Leonie Reynolds – President of the Consultative Council of European Judges (CCJE) of the Council of Europe

Artificial Intelligence and Judicial Activities: the Position of the Consultative Council of European Judges (CCJE)

09.50 – 10.20 coffee break

10.20 – 10.40 Giacomo Oberto - Secretary-General of the IAJ, President of the CEPEJ-SATURN Group of the Council of Europe

Artificial Intelligence and Judicial Activities: the Position of the European Commission for the Efficiency of Justice (CEPEJ)

10.40 – 11.30 Debate

11.30 – 12.00 Ms. Mariya Badeva (University of Cape Town - Faculty of Law)

President of the Session

Conclusions

12.00 Closure of the Conference